

Eggs in Blankets

Eggs are such a great and healthy way to start the day. Before I decided to change my diet, bread was a big part of my breakfast and I couldn't get my head around what you would have with your eggs or with your bacon, because everything should be sandwiched or on toast! Don't get me wrong I still eat bread from time to time and I'll have a nice sourdough loaf in the freezer for those occasions but I'll let you in on a secret you can make a tasty breakfast without toast!!!

So here's the simple recipe for eggs in blankets. It's a quick and easy way to cook your eggs and up your protein intake. And you can try this with turkey rashers as well as bacon..

Ingredients:

- 6 rashers of bacon
 - 3 large eggs
 - a pinch of chilli flakes
 - a pinch of pepper
 - chopped coriander for garnish
1. First of all pre-heat the oven to 160C (fan-assisted).
 2. Then grease a muffin tin with some coconut oil or ghee. Line each part of the muffin tin with one rasher of bacon.
 3. Now you have 2 options here and it depends on how you like your bacon; I like mine well done so I put the bacon lined muffin tin in the oven for 5 minutes before adding the egg mixture. If you like your bacon just cooked skip straight to step 4
 4. Beat 3 eggs (1 egg will make 2 portions) and add in some pepper and chilli flakes for flavour
 5. Pour the egg mixture into your bacon parcels
 6. Pop in the oven and bake your eggs in blankets for 15 minutes
 7. Remove the egg and bacon nest from the muffin tin and scatter with coriander to taste.

And there you have it, an easy recipe to make eggs for breakfast without any bread and plenty of flavour! ☐

Enjoy!

Nut Milk

Nut Milk

People mocked my nut milk bag purchase despite this being something I'd wanted to buy for AGES but had never quite gotten around to it. I have to say buying this was literally one of the single most exciting days of my life, only trumped by the fact that I actually made my own nut milk quickly a few days later!!

It's actually surprisingly easy to make your own nut milk but it's not an instant process. The processes themselves are really quick it's the hours of waiting in between that are time consuming! The first question people asked wasn't how but why. This was a shock, if you can make something yourself why wouldn't you?! Secondly, it is sadly assumed that all health products purchased in a store are actually healthy and good for you, and they generally are but if you look at the ingredients you may be shocked to find some nasties in there and other ingredients which you just don't need! My nut milk has 2 ingredients; nut and water. So how do you make nut milk? Here we go:

Buy 100g of your nut of choice, put them in a bowl and put in some cold water which is just enough to cover the nuts. Cover with cling film and leave them to soak for anywhere between 6 – 12 hours. Then drain the water off. Put your nuts in a blender and add 300g of cold water. Blend blend blend until you've got milk and hardly any nut chunks. Strain the milk through your nut milk bag into a jug, once you've strained really squeeze and twist what's left in the nut milk bag to really get as much in the jug as possible.

This will last in the fridge for about 5 days (if you can wait that long to drink it!). I suppose the next question is what can you do with it, well anything! You can use it to cook with, you can drink it on it's own, you can heat it up and add some raw cacao and make some hot chocolate, you can add some cardomom and cinnamon and make a nice soothing milky drink before bed! The possibilities are pretty endless, if you can imagine it you can do it ☐

Enjoy!

Hummus

Homemade Hummus Recipe

Hummus is amazing! It's the one thing I cannot avoid when there are snacks out at a party! And the great thing is that if you make your hummus at home it's super duper healthy ☐

Hummus seemed like a really daunting thing for me to make but it's actually surprisingly easy. It takes a few minutes to make and a few minutes to eat!

The only ingredients you'll need to make this is:

- 1 tin of chickpeas (drained)
- 1 red pepper chopped roughly
- 1 clove of chopped garlic
- 2 tbsp tahini paste or almond butter.

To make your hummus simply pop all of the ingredient into a blender and blitz until it's smooth. Spoon into a jar and refrigerate until you want to devour it! I like having mine with slightly heated pitta bread, sticks of pepper or carrot sticks ☐

Healthy Snacks

Healthy Snacks – Rosemary Roasted Pecans

So the January resolutions of getting fit and healthy are in full swing but there is one thing getting in your way; healthy snacks! So many people fall at this hurdle, they're at work and suddenly the munchies take hold of you and you're suddenly starving and it's hours until lunch time! Noooooooo! Then you check your purse and trundle off to the vending machine and buy the "healthy" flapjack! Be prepared people! Making your own healthy snacks so you can have a stash in your bag or in your desk drawer is a great way to make sure you don't fall off of the wagon! My latest healthy snack was inspired by Madeleine Shaw and is so quick and easy to make that you'll be kicking yourself for not having done it sooner!

Rosemary roasted pecans is the best of all the healthy snacks! Firstly in my opinion pecans always taste better when they're roasted and secondly nuts have all of the yummy good fats that you need in you want and not all of the bad sugary fats that you want to avoid.

So here's what you do. Preheat your oven to 160C. Take your pecans and scatter them on a baking tray. Drizzle some melted coconut oil over them or some rapeseed oil. Then take some fresh rosemary and fling across the nuts! Shake the tray so everything gets all mixed together. Then bake in the oven for 25 – 30 minutes. Once the nuts have cooled a little, take some kitchen paper and put it on the work surface, then sprinkle the nuts on top then get some more kitchen paper and put it on top and then dab the nuts just to get off any excess oil, pop the nuts in a little baggy or tupperware container, and now you have the ultimate, most delicious of all healthy snacks at your fingertips whilst you are on the go!

Black Beans Burger

I have always had an obsession with black beans and now it's a full blown love affair with this spicy black bean burger recipe! I really suffer with acne and as a 31 year old it's pretty devastating that my skin is still behaving like a teenagers, so I was doing some research and a few things that came up was that it might be a good idea to cut back on red meat to improve hormonal acne. I am a huge fan of meat especially beef and was pretty worried about giving up or cutting back on beef burgers, but with this spicy black bean burger recipe I can assure you that I certainly have nothing to worry about and I can hand on heart say that I would choose this every time! Black beans are sooooo nice! They have a whole load of health benefits too; black beans are high in protein and fibre so are a great option for vegetarians needing alternative sources of protein, they're loaded with iron, phosphorous, calcium, magnesium, manganese, copper and zinc which will help to build and maintain healthy bones. Black beans are also naturally low in sodium so they help to lower blood pressure. And finally black beans as a high fibre food will increase satiety and reduce appetite, which will help you to feel fuller for longer so you won't be reaching for the cookie jar!

So that's enough about why black beans are amazing! Let's look at this recipe!

- drain and mash can of black beans
- dice finely and add; 3 spring onions, 1 jalapeno, 1 bell pepper, 1 clove garlic
- add 1 large egg
- add 1/2 cup oats
- add 1tbsp paprika, 1 tbsp chilli
- add 2tbsp nandos peri peri sauce
- add 2tbsp water
- ensure all is well combined then spoon mixture on to a baking tray and cool at 190°C for 10 minutes each side

To keep it totally paleo serve in lettuce leaves instead of a bun, or just go totally bunless and leave-less and have it with some sweet potato or desiree potato fries ☐

Avocado Pancake

If you've not tried an avocado pancake you have no idea what you're missing out on! This avocado pancake recipe is quick, easy, healthy, clean eating, paleo, raw and delicious, if you ask me that ticks all of my boxes! If you need more reasons to eat avocado check out this post on all the health benefits.

So to make this avocado pancake breakfast all you need is half an avocado and 1 large egg. Ok so let's do this! Scoop out half of an avocado and whisk or mash it up in a bowl until it is smooth. Then crack a large egg in to the avocado and mix in until it's well combined. Heat a small frying pan and pop a small amount of olive oil or coconut oil into the pan, once it's hot pour in your avocado mixture and roll in the pan to let it spread. As with normal pancakes use a spatula to test the edges and smooth out the mixture and wait for the avocado pancake to start bubbling holes in the top, then flip it and cook on the other side for another 30 seconds to 1 minute until your happy it's cooked through.

Once your avocado pancake is cooked, pop it on a plate, spoon on some greek yoghurt and sprinkle on some cinnamon and a dash of maple syrup and oh boy you've got yourself THE most delicious avocado pancake breakfast you will ever taste!

You can try this with other ingredients too: use 1 banana a 2 eggs, or 1 small sweet potato and 2 eggs. Whichever tingles your tastebuds and it's so healthy!!!

Chilli

One of my favourite “stodge” recipes is a chilli, it makes me feel like I’m being naughty and eating something as treat but it’s actually super healthy and the chilli gives a nice fiery kick of heat to warm your cockles! This chilli recipe is quite simply a variation of my previous chilli recipe but with one amazing difference!! Whilst you are cooking the chilli, bake a potato. For best results, pre-heat your oven to 200C, prick your potato all over drizzle with olive oil, himalayan salt and a twist of pepper, then pop in the microwave for 5 minutes, turn and cook for a further 5 minutes and then pop it in the oven to crisp up the skin for 20 minutes. (make it paleo by using a sweet potato)

Now, back to the chilli! Make sure you cook this exactly the same as my chilli recipe and let the sauce thicken. You can cook this quickly on the hob it doesn't have to be done in the crockpot. Then once the potato has cooked, split in half and scoop out the flesh and pop in a bowl and mash it up so it's really smooth. If you want to make it really creamy add a little bit of mashed avocado to it :). Then take your little potato boat and put it on a baking tray lined with parchment paper, then scoop some chilli and put it inside the potato (careful not to overload it!) and then repeat this for the other half of the potato. Finally using a fork or spoon put your mashed potato back on top of the chilli mixture inside your potato. sprinkle a smidge of cheese on it you like and then pop it back in the oven or under a grill to crisp up the potato mixture on top of the chilli, serve garnished with fresh coriander.

So what's so great about this chilli recipe? Firstly you're getting a really good mix of fats, proteins and carbs, and secondly by putting your chilli mixture into your potato it's really helping you to manage your portion control! Double whammy!

Try it out for yourself! I promise you there is no other chilli recipe quite like it!
